AAC CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

- Starters: Open to dogs that have not earned an ADC or SGDC title*
- Advanced: Open to dogs that have not earned an AADC or AGDC title*
- Masters: Open to dogs that have earned an AADC or AGDC title *
- Regular: Dogs run at standard jump heights as determined by their measurement. A-frame height is set at 5' 6" and the ascending/double and spread jumps are used. The Standard Course Time (SCT) will apply according to the dog's Regular category division as defined by AAC.
- Specials: Open to all dogs and includes a drop in jump height (one height lower than the lowest of the Regular jump height options), a lower A-frame height (5') and the absence of the ascending/double or spread jumps. Dogs running in the Specials division shall be given the same SCT as dogs running in the corresponding Regular division.
- Veterans: Open to any dogs aged 7 years and older who has been competing in the Regular division. Also open to dogs 5 years of age or older who have been competing in the Specials division for a minimum of 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the move to Veterans division. Once a dog has competed formally in a trial within the Veterans division, they can no longer compete in the Regular or Specials division. For any given trial, the handler may opt for a "single drop" (one jump height lower than Regular height) or a "double drop" (two jump heights lower than Regular height), but they may not change heights within a single trial. A-frame height is set at 5' and ascending/double or spread jumps are not used.
- FEO: This option is available for competitors to enter classes "for exhibition only". FEO entries are not formally judged, nor are they eligible to earn "Q's" or placements. You must have an AAC card and number to enter a FEO run, and the jump height is your choice.

 Competitors are responsible for keeping track of their dog's acquired legs and titles. Please refer to the AAC Official Rules and Regulations handbook at www.aac.ca for more information.

 Move-ups will be allowed on the second day of the trial.

NADA relies heavily on donations to run our competitions.
